

Prayer, Virtue, and Discipleship —

KEYS TO PASTORAL MINISTRY

A 3-PART VIRTUAL ZOOM CONFERENCE
MAY 24-25-26 › 6PM - 9PM EST › COST: $75

FACILITATORS: Dr. Susan Muto and Lori McMahon

MONDAY, MAY 24

Living the Grace of Unceasing Prayer

featuring John Cassian

John Cassian (360 - 435) teaches that prayer is the central dynamic of the spiritual journey – serving as the foundation of, and inspiration for, intimacy with God. “...We pray when...without opening our mouths and in perfect silence, we offer our petitions to the One who pays no attention to words, but who looks hard at our hearts.”

TUESDAY, MAY 25

Living a Life of Virtue

featuring Evagrius Ponticus

One of the first Christians to elucidate the dynamics of virtue vs. vice and to codify the “Deadly Sins”, Evagrius Ponticus (345 - 399) was a desert monk who exerted a profound influence on Christianity in both the Eastern and Western traditions.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26

Living as Disciples of Christ

featuring Ignatius of Loyola

As we grow in discipleship, our ordinary lives become an offering of sacrificial love to the Father through Jesus in the Spirit. Ignatius of Loyola (1491 - 1556) has much to teach about the deepening embrace of God’s all-permeating presence, which allows God’s life to flow through us as committed disciples of Christ.
